All students are expected to attend the workshop day prior to the competition day to ensure they are aware of the games played.

AWARDS

1. All participants will receive a certificate of participation.
2. The winning team in each age group on the competition day will receive a first place certificate.
3. The winning team in each age group will win the shield for Theatre Sports for the year.

CHILD SAFETY

This Code of Conduct has a specific focus on safeguarding children and young people at CSEN Events against sexual, physical, psychological and emotional abuse or neglect. It is intended to complement other professional and/or occupational codes.

All staff, volunteers, contractors, and board members at CSEN are expected to actively contribute to a school events association culture that respects the dignity of its members and affirms the Gospel values of love, care for others, compassion and justice. They are required to observe child safe principles and expectations for appropriate behaviour towards and in the company of children, as per policy.

All adults present at the championships should fall into one of the following categories:

- a. Students (in school sports / theatre sports uniform)
- b. Staff from a school (in school staff polo top, or with school identification / lanyard clearly visible)
- c. Staff from Rethink PD
- d. CSEN staff (in CSEN attire)
- e. Parents / Visitors (school lanyard visible)

All school staff are requested to ensure adults sitting in the room have appropriate identification. If not, please ask them to sign in with the school they are associated with. Schools must have lanyards available for parent visitors and ensure they sign the school Child Safe Policy. Cultural Coordinators should be fully aware of the CSEN Child Safety Policy and the implementation of the policy at this event.

The Child Safety Officer at the event will be the convener of the event.

EMERGENCY PROCEDURES

Emergency procedures are available at the venue.

ENTRY FORMS

1. Entries are due 5 February in the year of competition (4:00pm), via the online entry form.

EVENT RULES

1. Secondary Championships – only currently enrolled students in Years 7 – 12 from member schools may compete.
2. Primary students may compete at the Secondary Championships providing:
 - a. They are an emergency replacement for a secondary student
 - b. There is no more than one primary boy or girl representing the school
3. Schools enter teams of up to 5 students in any of the following categories: Junior (Years 7 – 9) or Senior (Years 10 – 12) or more than one section.
4. Schools participate in one workshop day to learn the skills required for the competition.
5. The intention of the day is for schools / students to compete to the best of their ability in a friendly, encouraging Christian setting.
6. Electronic equipment must not be accessed during the day. It is preferred that these devices are not brought to CSEN Theatre Sports
7. All competing teams must have a teacher with them.

FINAL / END OF DAY PROCEDURE

It is expected that at the conclusion of the event, all schools will clean the area they have been sitting in CSEN / venue staff. Excess cleaning costs will be passed onto schools that leave their area in an unacceptable state.

FIRST AID

must also provide their own first aid kit and a trained first aider (may be a teacher). Any injuries at a CSEN event must be documented by the school and the school accident form submitted to CSEN at the end of each term as part of the Principal's Declaration.

NOTES FOR SCHOOLS

1. Staff and students are expected to provide their own lunch / snacks for the day.
2. If you require additional information, please check the CSEN website.
3. Further queries may be directed to the CSEN Executive Officer (csen@csa.edu.au).

PARKING

1. Schools are expected to park in designated bays at the venue. Please check with the venue on arrival for suitable parking.

PHOTOGRAPHY

1. Students, staff and parents may take photographs during the day for personal use only. These photographs must not be published to social media as this contravenes the CSEN Media Policy.
2. CSEN will not provide official photographs of the event.

SCORING PROCEDURES

1. During the heats and finals, staff from participating schools are expected to help score the performances of all schools. There is no scoring on the day of the workshop. The intention of the workshop is for students to understand and develop their story telling skills in a non-competitive environment.
2. The school with the highest score after the final performance will be awarded the CSEN Theatre Sports shield.
3. In the case of a tied results, the schools will be declared joint winners and will share the shield.

SPECTATORS

Due to space requirements for this event, no spectators/parents are permitted to attend.

WHAT IS THEATRE SPORTS?

Theatre Sports focuses on improvisation and spontaneous creativity, in a series of timed games which place a focus on the idea of 'offers'. An offer is where a performer suggests something which could happen in a scene. The offer can be either accepted by a team-mate (in which case the scene will advance) or be blocked (in which case the scene is effectively killed). The ideal situation for a Theatre Sports game is for offers to be accepted and built upon so as the scene is constantly developing and growing.

Improvisation is fun! It's about harnessing your creativity in a positive and safe environment. It is based on the following principles: acceptance, being positive, and being in the moment, making your partner look good, embracing and removing fear, enjoying failure and storytelling. Regardless of experience, background or training, everybody can benefit from impro.

Today, improvisation is widely used in theatre as an actor's training tool, a rehearsal technique, and an exploration tool for writers and a performance style. You can find it in many forms on TV in such shows as Whose Line Is It Anyway, Thank God You're Here, World Cup Comedy and The Office.

TYPES OF GAMES

1. Endowment Games – where one member of the team is endowed with certain attributes and has to try and guess what they are.
2. Genre Games – where the style of the performance becomes the 'hook'.
3. Emotion Games – where extremes of emotions provide the entertainment.
4. Song Games – where music plays a key role in the scene.
5. Story Games – where the focus is on narrative development.
6. Word Games – where the challenge lies in manipulating words or letters according to the game confines.
7. Novelty Games – where each game has one sort of 'hook' which provides the entertainment.

THE TEN COMMANDMENTS OF THEATRE SPORTS

1. Thou shalt not block.
2. Thou shalt always retain focus.
3. Thou shalt not shine above thy team-mates.
4. To gag is to commit a sin that will be paid for.
5. Thou shalt always be changed by what is said to you.
6. Thou shalt not waffle.
7. When in doubt, break the routine.
8. To wimp is to show thy true self.
9. She/he who tries to be clever is not; while she/he that is clever doesn't try.
10. When thy faith is low, thy spirit weak, thy good fortune strained, and thy team losing, be comforted and smile, because it just doesn't matter.

RULES OF THEATRE SPORTS

1. All games will allow a 10 second time out unless stipulated. All time out must be clearly signalled with the appropriate "T" sign to the compare.
2. All games must end on the given time limit. The timekeeper will blow the whistle at the end of the time. It is up to the team to finish properly... or should a team wish to finish the scene before the given time limit, the appropriate signal of "Hands Down" should be given.
3. Teams given the "0" boring signal from the judges must immediately vacate the stage.
4. All teams play with 4 players. These can be deployed according to the requirements of the game and the needs of the improvisation. Exact numbers of players and recommendations are outlined in the summary of each game.
5. All games are an incentive to "create a scene". The games will be judged on the following criteria:
 - a) Storyline: the story is the foundation of the scene. Characters should only be introduced upon the requirement of the impro.
 - b) Skills/Risk: technical and creative skills of yielding, advancing, extending and on the risks taken by the players to further the impro.
 - c) Entertainment: was this theatre? Did it entertain the audience?
6. All teams will therefore be judged according to their utilisation of the following theatre skills, when they are required in a game: Storytelling, Mime, Focus, Energy, Characterisation, Status, Vocal Projection, Physicalisation, Dance, Timing, Musicianship, Discipline and Good Sportsmanship.
7. The TEN COMMANDMENTS must be adhered to. Infringement such as blocking, wimping, and gagging will be heavily penalized.
8. The team with the highest score wins the competition.

SKILLS DEVELOPED THROUGH THEATRE SPORTS

1. Listening to and hearing what your fellow players are offering you
2. Seeing and recognising the physical offers from fellow players
3. Accepting and developing the action
4. Creating problems and conflicts. Making the drama
5. Understanding the concepts of Who, What, Where and When
6. Taking Risks
7. Communicating the theme clearly to the audience
8. Recognising the ending
9. The ability to develop a wide range of believable characters

RISK WARNING UNDER SECTION 5M OF THE CIVIL LIABILITY ACT 2002

ON BEHALF OF CSEN AND CSEN MEMBER SCHOOLS

Sporting and Cultural Activities

Christian Schools Events Network (CSEN) administers and convenes CSEN inter-school sporting and cultural activities in which many students from its members' schools participate. Students participating in these events take part in practice, trials, workshops, and competitions.

CSEN and its members' schools expect students to take responsibility for their own safety during sporting activities by wearing compulsory safety equipment, by thinking carefully about the use of safety equipment that is highly recommended and by behaving in a safe and responsible manner towards team members, opponents, spectators, officials, property, and grounds. CSEN and its members' schools also expect parents, spectators, and other participants to behave in a safe and responsible manner, to comply with the CSEN Code of Conduct and to set a good example for the students.

While CSEN and its members schools take measures to make the sporting and cultural activities as safe as possible for participants, there is a risk that students can be injured and suffer loss (including financial loss) and damage as a result of their participation in these sporting and cultural activities, whether at training or in actual events. Parents, spectators, and officials could also be injured or suffer loss.

Injury can occur while the student, parent, spectator, or official is engaging in or watching a sporting or cultural activity or travelling to and from the event. The injury may result from a student's actions, the actions of others, the state of the premises or from equipment failure.

On some occasions, an injury can be serious (such as torn ligaments, dislocations, back injuries, concussion, or broken bones). In very rare cases an injury can be life threatening or result in permanent disability. If a student, parent, spectator, or official has a pre-existing injury, participating in a sporting or cultural activity could result in an exacerbation of that injury.

Students, parents, spectators, and officials could also suffer loss as a result of their personal property being lost, stolen, damaged or destroyed.

CSEN does not provide Personal/Accident Insurance Cover

It is the responsibility of CSEN member schools to ensure that all teachers/parents/volunteers they send to a sporting or cultural event have a valid WWCC and / or VIT accreditation and have signed the CSEN Child Safe Policy Register at their school. This information will be forwarded to CSEN on a regular basis.

It is the responsibility of schools to ensure that all staff, students, and parents attending a CSEN event have been informed of this Risk Warning.

CHANGE ROOMS

CSEN recognises that children are particularly vulnerable in change rooms and that measures must be put in place to ensure that children are able to safely get changed without fear of intrusion or fear for their safety.

Generally, the expectation of CSEN is that Member School Staff and Member School Volunteers would appropriately supervise change rooms in accordance with Department of Education guidelines. The same goes for CSEN Staff and CSEN volunteers who may be required to supervise change rooms in the course of supervising CSEN Representatives at non-CSEN events.

Those guidelines are that change rooms should be supervised and supervisors should adhere to the following guidelines:

- give explicit instructions and guidelines for behaviour in change rooms
- ensure students and staff have been notified that mobile phones (and cameras) are prohibited in changerooms
- set a routine for going into change rooms and keep to it
- announce to students when entering the change room and allow time for students to cover up
- do not stand in change rooms while students are changing as students have a right to privacy, and
- staff should not be in a changeroom with one student / player.

While the issue of a supervisor of either sex supervising the change rooms of both sexes poses some difficulties, some suggestions for supervisors in this situation include:

- give explicit rules about what is expected of students' behaviour in the change rooms
- ensure that students know that if there is an emergency you will enter the change room
- choose two student representatives to report to you about any problems in the change rooms
- ask the students to come out of the change room if there is any disturbance
- if for some reason the students remain in the change room seek a person of the appropriate sex to go in, and
- if there is an emergency, let students know you are coming in and give a warning to cover up before going in.

Parents from member schools must be discouraged from entering the changerooms unless truly necessary.
